Redactions on page 5 (“cut . . .” and “JJHCS . . .”) of the September 7 lead letter (ECF No. 150; the “September 7 Letter”); discussion of changes to the CarePath program; and Exhibits 18 and 19: documents regarding the CarePath program.	JJHCS requests the sealing of two documents and related discussions in the September 7 Letter that are not known to the general public and for which the parties agreed to keep confidential. JJHCS maintains that these exhibits contain sensitive business information, including the administration of the CarePath program.	If filed on the public docket, these exhibits and related discussion will reveal confidential material relating to JJHCS’s sensitive business information.  Disclosure of this confidential and proprietary information to the public would cause irreparable harm to JJHCS because it would place JJHCS at a competitive disadvantage if its competitors secured the information.	JJHCS requests redactions of only the information that will reveal confidential information that is not known to the general public. No less restrictive alternative is available or practicable.	None.
